There has been no reasonable argument presented in favor of this bill. To take a portion of the salarles and hold it as a pension fund is not reasonable. Who of the government employes is willing to admit his inability to run his own business affairs and get more from investment of his savings than the government policy can offer him? Who of the government employes will admit that his salary is sufficient, much less that he can stand a reduction in these piping times of high living? Is not the principal necessity an increase in salaries, rather than to have them reduced? if a Richard Miller, accused of cashing a government clerk is not capable of taking care of himself, is it not an admission that he is incapable, and therefore not an advantage to the government? Rather than face criticism of friends after being arrested on a charge of dis orderly conduct, Mrs. Julia Morrison thirty-one years of age, attempted suicide by leaping from the second-story window of her home, 611 New Jersey avenue northwest, yesterday morning.

She landed on soft earth, receiving se vere bruises about the body. An ambulance was summoned and the woman was taken to Emergency Hospital. Her in juries were not dangerous. She remained sullen over the failure of her attempt to end her life. Later she
